September Domestic Church At-Home Family Project

Welcome back to another faith-filled Religious Education year!

OH, MY WORD

Listening to God's Story

St. Robert Bellarmine Religious Education 2026

Our theme for the Religious Education year is Sacred Scripture. During this year, we will be inviting you as a family to reflect on the place that God's Word has within your family life.

Do you read the Bible as a family? Does God's Word inspire and support what you do in your daily activities? How can you as a family connect in a more meaningful and intentional way?

For our first Domestic Church At-Home Project this year, you and your family are invited to choose one of the Bible passages below and reflect on what it means for you. You can write a paragraph, draw a picture, or create a video to share your thoughts. Make sure everyone in your family is included in reflecting on the passage you choose. Consider in what ways inviting God more purposefully into your family through God's Word will add joy and peace to your home.

"Take to heart these words which I command you today. Keep repeating them to your children. Recite them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you get up." (Deuteronomy 6:6-7)

"As for me and my household, we will serve the LORD." (Joshua 24:15)

"Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, love is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things." (1 Corinthians 13:4-7)

"Put on ... heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do. And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection." (Colossians 3:12-13)
